

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1873.

By telegrams from London, it is learned that the recent excitement in the money market in Vienua has seriously affected all the great money markets of Europe. The falling off in values on the Vienna Bourse is estimated at a hundred millions of dollars. Latter advices were more favorable. Money was easy in New York early in the day yesterday at 6 per cent. per annum for call loans, but the market tightened in the afternoon, and the rate at the close of business was 7 per cent., gold. The stock market was unsettled and feverish, and prices were carried down by the tight money market in the afternoon.

The financial article of the Baltimore Sun says: "The marked falling off in our importations with the largely increased export of domestic produce, seems to ensure no further present rise in the gold premium. It is a well known fact that many orders for foreign goods have been countermanded. Consigned goods are not coming with the usual freedom, the demoralized condition of the markets in this country rendering the satisfactory sale of goods an impossibility. The experience of this season has taught foreigners that, large as the consumptive capacity of the country undoubtedly is, there is a limit to it."

The Improved Order of Red Men, of the Maryland jurisdiction, celebrated the anniversary of the patron of the Order yesterday, by a general procession through the streets of Baltimore and a pic nic at Druid Hill park. The procession was long and imposing, consisting of the city tribes of the Order and several visiting organizations, in three divisions, between each of which were the orphans cared for by the Order, and old and disabled members in carriages, with a full band of music heading each tribe. The display was very fine and proved the flourishing condition of the Order.

The Conservatives of the State must bear in mind that the approaching State election will be a warmly contested one, and that they will probably have their political opponents to con- jury against Janneson in swearing to the frautend against in full force. It will therefore require, to secure the success of the Conservatives, a selection of candidates composed of the best men in the Commonwealth, and who can be relied on for ability, honesty, and devotion to their cause and the interests of the State. and besides this there must be entire union and harmony in their ranks. The importance of the election ought to guarantee all this.

Benjamin F. Camp has commenced a suit at Washington against Whitelaw Reid, of The N. Y. Tribune, for designating the said Camp as a "chronic dead head," and charging that he was in the habit of obtaining free board and lodgings, free rides and free admittance to him of $29,000 by purchasing for him worthplaces of amusement by falsely representing less stocks. Nicolay was held in default of himself as an editor of The Tribune. The writ was served upon Mr. Reid yesterday while he was in Washington attending the Chase obsequies.

The Church of the Ascension, (Episcopal) Rev. J. E. Cathell rector, corner of Lafayette avenue and Oregon strect, Baltimore, took fire last night in the roof over the organ loft, about 8 o'clock, and at 11 o'clock nothing but the bare walls were left standing. Loss, $50,000. The church was built in 1871 at a cost of $60,000, and was one of the handsomest edifices in the city.

It is mentioned that "American visitors to Quebec this year will miss one of the greatest attractions of the old City, in the Gates. The Prescott Gate, where Arnold and the American troops were defeated on New Year's eve, ninety-eight years ago, and the St. Lewis Gate were torn down sometime since, and now Hope and Palace Gates have been demolished.

The New York Herald says that there is a great deal of American shoddy at Vienna; but the "shoddy" it refers to is in the schemers and vain-glorious Americans who have brought disgrace upon the national character by bnying and selling official positions connected with the American Commission and Department of the Exhibition.

SUMMER DIET FOR INFANTS. -At a recent meeting of the Public Health Association of New York a series of resolutions were passed requesting Dr. A. Jacobi to furnish for the use of the Association a schedule of directions conenough of mile det in summer, and to presort the same at a future meeting. On last Find y evening, at the rooms of the Medical Journal Association, Dr. Jacobi responded to the resolution, prefacing his remarks by an ch borate address on the physiology of infant discs in and food. The following is the schedule:

Overfeeding does more harm than anything else; surse a baby of a month old or two every two or three hours; nurse a baby of six months and over five times in twenty four hours, and no more.

When a baby gets thirsty in the meantime give it a drink of water or barley water. In very hat weather, mix a teaspoonful of whiskey with a tumbler full of water (no sugar). Boil a teaspoonful of powdered barley (grind it in the coffee-grinder) and a gill of water, with salt, for fifteen minutes. Strain it and pices of loaf sugar. Give it lukewarm through a nursing-bottle.

Keep the bottle and mouthpiece in water when not in use. Give balis of five or six months half barley water and half boiled milk with salt and loaf

Give older babies more milk in proportion. When babies are very costive, take out-meal instead of barley, but be sure to cool, and

When your breast-milk is half enough for the infant, alternate with bread and food. In hot summer weather dip a small piece of litmus paper into the food before feeding. If the had paper turns red, add a pinch of baking-10 a to the food. Basies of six months may have beef tea or beef soup once a day by itself or mixed with other food.

WAS IT A RUNAWAY MATCH, OR HOW? -On Saturday last about 2 p. m., a young man, with a pepper and salt suit, his pants half covering a pair of cow-hide boots, (No. 10's,) came straggling from the office of the clerk of the court with a marriage license in one hand and the stump of a Wheeling stogey (as they call the home-made cigars south of the Potomae) in the other. He inquired of a bystander: 'Can you tell me, mister, whar I can find a preacher?" The writer escorted him to the door of the study of Rev. Dr. Tiffany, of the M. E. Church, where a tall, brindle blond, with her lady friend joined him. A halt was made, a consultation held as to who should who by the way, was dressed in a large striped white and black calico, with panier of the latest news from the lava beds, made a successful effort, and all were soon in the presence of the dector, who took in at a glance their desire to "You William II—, do take," &c., and "You, Sarah A—," &c., and "May God bless," &c., the ceremony was over in a few minutes, and the two went down 41 street. Crossing over the avenue to the south side, arrived at that farmers for their own use could they went on down to the Capitol grounds, where the following conversation was over heard :- "Well, Sallie, how much did it cost? "That's for me to know and you to find out." "But Sallie, -- " 'No buts about it; I've heard enough, and we'd have been married long ago if it hadn't have been for your consarned foolishness." As the writer was in pretty close preximity to the speakers, he thought he'd better "slope," when the groom remarked, "Sall, don't talk so loud; there's the same man we asked for the preacher, and he's got a led pencil in his hand. I wonder it he ain't a detective?" and then they all three climbed the steps toward the Capitol. They

"VA. CONSOL. COUPONS."-This is the name by which these coupons "Receivable for all taxes dues and demands due the State" are quoted in financial tables. They are possibly called so because they represent the interest on that portion of the public debt consolidated under the provisions of the Funding Bill. There is some demand for them already by parties having special licenses to pay who are general up to the times. After a little while it will be to the interest probably of a very large number of tax-payers to buy them .-As this latter class have seldom occasion to refer to stock reports, we submit a few remarks with a view of directing their attention to these coupons. They are of Jenominations adapted to general use-$30, $15 and $3. When quoted at 83 or 90, the meaning is they are held at so many cents in the dellar. It is a mistake to presume however that they can be bought at these figures and paid out at their full face value to the tax collector. The reason for this is that the Legislature has imposed a tax on all interest upon State bonds equal to 50 cents of their market value on the 1st day of April. As the market value of coupon bonds on the 1st of April was $54, it follows that the semiable with half of said tax or one quarter per cent of the market value of the bonds of that date. We therefore find the Auditor issuing instructions to collectors to deduct from a $30 coupon $1 35, a $15 coupon 67 cents, and a $3, coupon 13 cents. This tax is equivalent to 41 per cent on the face value of coupons, or 9 per cent of the annual interest. Citizens buying bonds or conpons should bear these facts in mind. We presume there will be a supply of then upon the market above the demand so long as the Legislature fails to provide, as it has done, for their full redemption in currency at the treasury .-- Warrenton Index.

THE LOSS OF STATE RIGHTS. -The events of the past few months in Louisiana have demonstrated the fact that against an Administration bent on personal government and determined to keep its retainers in and its opponents out of State as well as Federal offices the people of a State have no rights whatever. Shameless usurpation by a drunken and corrupt Federal judge may be backed up by Federal bayonets, the regular and lawful count of votes overruled by Federal authority, and the whole government of a State usurped and possessed by the minions of the Federal Administration. What has been done in Louisiana may be done in any other State.

We take these things very calmly. Why shouldn't we? As for Louisiana, it's a great way off, and so long as our own rights are not invaded, we cannot afford to get excited over abstractions or waste time protesting against Federal usurpations and the invasion of the rights of States. It is not strange, perhaps, as human nature is constituted, that these things do not move us. Will anything? Perhaps, by and by the peo ple will find it worth their while to turn this matter over a little thoughtfully and see what sort of men these are who run the Government, and what sort of government they are giving us.-N. Y. Tribune.

SOMETHING NEW. -Mr. John W. Graham is about introducing to the attention of this community a very unique and ingenious contri vance called the "Adjudicator," which violates no law. It consists of a round table, say three feet in diameter, laid off into thirty-two points. with a rotating arrow working on a pivot in the centre; at each point a prize is placed; the arrow, or needle is then usade to traverse the circle, and is allowed to settle on a point, and the prize placed at that point belongs to the purchaser of a picture, or other article that may be offered for sale; it will therefore be seen that this game has 32 prizes and no blanks. Mr. G. says the adjudicator is unlike a somewhat similar game set up some years ago by Crab (or Grab) Horton, of Stafford county, who asserted that the only advantage his game had was in claiming the "splits"—that is when the needle paused between two points, or prizes, the player claimed both, but in Mr. Graham's game the player claims nothing in any case. - Fairfax News

WASHINGTON ITEMS .- At a late meeting of the Board of Trustees of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church a resolution was adopted increasing the salary of their pastor, Rev. S. S. Mitchell, to $6,000 per annum, in view of his faithfulness and ability.

Lewis Johnson & Co. moved into their new banking-house yesterday, on the site of their old one, at the intersection of Tenth and D. streets with Pennsylvania avenue. The new edifice is one of the finest in the city.

Three additional cases of small-pox were reported at the Health Office yesterday, and only one death.

A Decision. - An Iowa clergyman was just unreasonable enough to want his salary, and when the church failed utterly to pay him any considerable portion of it, he sucd and recovered judgment. The matter was recently made the subject of investigation by a council of inquiry, and that tribunal arrived at four solemn findings, viz: That the church did wrong in failing to pay the pastor his salary; that the pastor did wrong in suing the church, and that the church should apologize to the pastor and the pastor should apologize to the church.

The services in the garrison church, at Vienna, on Sunday morning last, were conducted according to the Protestant Episcopal form of worship, the Rev. Mr. Mornbert officiating. A large congregation of English and Americans were in attendance, and at the close Minister Jay tendered thanks to the Austrian authorities for their kind consideration.

The census of 1870 reports 122,000 whites and 322,000 blacks, who could not read and write in Virginia.

JUDGES IN ILLINOIS. - A remarkable phase of the farmers' movement in the West, and one that is not likely to do it much credit, occurs in Illinois. Judge Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, having given a decison against the constitutionality of the new law limiting the treight charges on the railroad, the farmers' party in his district turned on him and nominated for his place a certain Mr. Craig on the platform of their convention. The election is to take place soon, and thus we have the extraordinary spectacle of a candidate running for a judicial office pledged to a certain class of lecisions in case he is elected to the bench, which it is quite probable he will be. The undertaking of a party to place in the highest court of Illinois a judge who is bound to them to decide as they wish on a legal question is, as the Chicago Tribune styles it, "a" damnable doctrine," and aught to be rejected by an over whelming majority of the people.
